

advertisement

What's your
**?
Anti-Drug
 DKNY//JEANS fashion
 MY ANTI-DRUG.

You know, it's the thing you can't live without; it gets you amped, hypes you up, and makes you feel alive. It's the thing you choose to do instead of drugs.

Some of Hollywood's hottest young talent shared their Anti-Drug with DKNYJeans and the National Youth Anti-Drug Media Campaign. Check out the calendar in this month's issue to find out about their Anti-Drug.

1. See Jonathan Jackson in the movie Tuck Everlasting. His Anti-Drug is faith.
2. Ethan Browne has a hot modeling career and a first novel near completion. His Anti-Drug is music.
3. Alex Band is a rock star, writing a new album, and drug-free. "I see all these amazing musicians who... ended up killing themselves because of drugs. For me it was an easy decision not to get involved."
4. Jay Hernandez is starring in a motorcycle movie called Torque. His Anti-Drug is his family.
5. Check out Wentworth Miller in his upcoming role in Human Stain. He believes staying drug-free is critical to success. "Drugs definitely weren't part of my formula for success. Drugs complicate everything. They destroy creativity and take away your dedication."
6. Rick Yune dates Lisa Ling from The View. His intense Anti-Drug feelings stem from seeing too many childhood friends ruin their lives by using.
7. Matthew Davis stars in the movie Blue Crush! His Anti-Drug? Acting keeps him focused on growing and learning—drugs would stop him in his tracks.
8. Jared Padalecki plays Dean on Gilmore Girls. Anti-Drug? Good company.
9. Look for Quidus in a movie with Britney Murphy! His Anti-Drug? People. "If you've got good people around, and enjoy each other's company, you don't need to get high."
10. Billy Kay plays an ongoing role on Guiding Light. His Anti-Drug? "I try to focus on what I want to achieve. I try to learn as much as I can from other actors or directors or cinematographers... find that passion and what matters to you most."
11. Sean Maguire is a caring, super cool guy who wanted to be part of this calendar because he feels an obligation to help keep teens away from drugs.
12. You've seen Paul Walker in The Fast and the Furious, and he's now working on the sequel. His Anti-Drug? Surfing, it's a natural way to feel great.
13. Don't miss Brendan Fehr in his upcoming motorcycle movie. Brendan's thoughts on drugs? "Drugs are stupid, and it actually makes me angry inside when I see people doing it."
14. You know where to look for Enrique Iglesias—he's everywhere! His Anti-Drug? Hanging out at the beach, windsurfing, and getting lost in the ocean and sand.

Like what you see, like what you hear? Want more of the calendar and these great guys?

Go to www.Freevibe.com, and download copies for your friends. Starting in January, Freevibe will feature a different celebrity every month! Read interviews, watch videos, and learn about their Anti-Drugs.

Herb Ritts—one of Hollywood's hottest photographers—is the master behind the calendar photos. Check out more behind-the-scenes footage at www.Freevibe.com! WHAT'S YOUR ANTI-DRUG? GO TO WWW.FREEVIBE.COM TO TELL THE GUYS IN THE CALENDAR ABOUT YOUR ANTI-DRUG.